ATTORNEYS & COUNSELORS

Dale Fresch Associate

Dale Fresch is an associate in Brewer, Attorneys & Counselors' Dallas office.

Prior to joining Brewer, Attorneys & Counselors, Mr. Fresch served as the Chief Compliance Officer of a Dallas-based financial services company. He provided counsel on how to navigate the various state and federal regulatory schemes governing the company's multi-state operations, and also formed defense and resolution strategies for high-profile lawsuits.

Most recently, he oversaw the corporate response to an on-site examination of the company's operations by the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau (CFPB). Prior to that, Mr. Fresch provided legal and tax advice to local businesses at a boutique business law firm in Dallas.

In 2013, Mr. Fresch received his Juris Doctor degree, cum laude, from the Southern Methodist University Dedman School of Law. While at SMU Dedman, Mr. Fresch served as Editor-in-Chief of the Journal of Air Law & Commerce and was awarded the first annual Texas Aviation and Space Lawyers Scholarship. Mr. Fresch also served as a student attorney in the school's Consumer Advocacy Clinic and completed a judicial externship under the Honorable Terry R. Means, Senior United States District Court Judge for the Northern District of Texas.

Mr. Fresch received bachelor of arts degrees in writing and film from Purdue University in 2003, after which he spent six-and-a-half years as a producer, executive producer, and news operations manager at various television stations across the country.
