

B R E W E R

ATTORNEYS & COUNSELORS

Fred Kaes Senior Consultant

Fred Kaes is a senior litigation consultant (non-attorney) in Brewer, Attorneys & Counselors' Dallas office.

Mr. Kaes received his Bachelor of Science degree in accounting in 1993 from Montclair State University. After graduation, he worked as an accountant with J.H. Cohn LLP, a regional public accounting firm. Following nearly three years in public accounting, he attended Duke University's Fuqua School of Business to pursue an MBA, with a focus on finance.

Subsequent to graduate business school, Mr. Kaes worked as a senior associate in the Litigation Support practice at PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP. He then joined Duff & Phelps, LLC in 2002 (the successor to Standard & Poor's Corporate Value Consulting group) as a valuation consultant. He worked there approximately 10 years, leaving as a Director in the Valuation Advisory Services group in 2012 to join Brewer, Attorneys & Counselors.

While at Duff & Phelps, Mr. Kaes acquired extensive experience performing valuations of U.S. and international based business enterprises, legal entities, debt and equity securities, intangible assets, and intellectual property for purposes of financial and tax reporting, litigation support, and tax reorganizations. He performed such valuations within a wide range of industries, including broadband service providers, pharmaceutical and healthcare service companies, electronic connector and component companies, and security service and product providers.

Mr. Kaes is a Chartered Financial Analyst (CFA) charter holder, a Certified Management Accountant (CMA), and has passed all four parts of the Certified Public Accountant's exam. He is a member of the Dallas Society of Chartered Financial Analysts and the Institute of Management Accountants.

Education

M.B.A., Duke University
B.S. in accounting, Montclair State University, 1993

Contact

fzk@brewerattorneys.com
214.653.4849